FUN FILLED EVENTS AT PAGE & LINCOLN ELEMENTARY

OLD CREAMERY THEATER: On Friday, April 22nd Lincoln and Page Elementary students traveled to the Boone HS auditorium and watched the Old Creamery Production of Character Counts! Many mini-shows were performed by the Old Creamery cast. The students and staff enjoyed this show! A special thank you to the Lincoln PTO and Page PTA for sponsoring this fantastic experience for our students!

Franklin Music Teacher, Lois Downs, would like to thank the FFA workers and their "Big Event", who helped the 4th grade music classes weed, trim, rake and spread mulch at Franklin Elementary. "We could not have done it without their help! Thank you so much, Mr. Fitzgerald and FFA team"!

CONGRATULATIONS TO:

- ★ BHS Senior Daniel Anderson on being awarded the winner of the Iowa Football Coaches Association Walt Fiegle Memorial Scholarship. Daniel will receive his scholarship award during the presentation ceremony at halftime of the Shrine Bowl game in Cedar Falls on July 23, 2016.
- ★ BHS Boys Track, BHS Girls Track and BHS Boys Golf teams and coaches who all won their RRC Meets this past week! Way to go Toreadors!
- ★ BHS Boys Golf Coach Steve Sandvig who was awarded RRC coach of the year.
- ★ BHS Girls Track Coach Scott Kiesel on being awarded back to back RRC coach of the year.
- ★ Sydney Woodruff, BMS 8th grade, for her 3rd place finish in the middle school Modern Woodmen state speech contest held on May 5 in Council Bluffs. Sydney was given a trophy and a prize of $50.

SPECIAL SPEAKERS AND GUESTS:

During the week of May 2nd, BHS Sophomore, Anna Olson, presented to the students at Page and Lincoln Elementary Schools during an all-school assembly. She read a book to the students and talked about never giving up! Then students in both buildings had a special visitor-Pete the Cat and Zach Steir from the Ericson Public Library!! The students did a little dancing with Pete the Cat and listened to a Pete the Cat story read by Ericson librarian, Zach Stier. Finally the students got to either give Pete the Cat a high five or a hug as they left the assembly.

BMS 5th/6th grade PE Teacher, Josh Hoover, was awarded the BCSD 'DORS Award for May. Pictured L-R: BCSD Superintendent Dr. Brad Manard, BCSD Board President Kirk Leeds, 'DORS Award recipient Josh Hoover, BMS 6th grade student Daniel Peterson, BMS Principal Scott Kelley, and BMS 5th/6th grade Counselor Karlene Hughes.
